ORDER

This matter is before the court on the defendant, Lorenzo Gonzalez-Perez's unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [288]. Counsel for Defendant Lorenzo Gonzalez-Perez will be on maternity leave through mid-March, 2023 and needs additional time meet with the Defendant to discuss plea resolution versus trial. Counsel for the remaining co-defendants have been contacted and have no objection to the continuance. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motions to Continue Trial [288] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for all defendants, now set for March 21, 2023, is continued to May 22, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and May 22, 2023 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted without requesting a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: February 21, 2023.
